VOL. V. NO. 261. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 29-30, 1899. PRICE, 5 CENTS

THROUGH AT HARLEM.

The Illinois racing season of 1899 came to a close at Harlem Saturday, and despite the fact that it was a raw, cold afternoon and there was a surer that the track would be a sea of mud and slush, a big crowd was on hand to bid the course goodbye.

As is always the case when the going is extremely muddy, the sport was somewhat tame, but nevertheless out of the last race came a rousing finish that will long be remembered. It was between Tappan and David, and the former won the decision.

That Tappan is as honest and as game as any horse that has performed on local tracks this season must be conceded. He has started oftener perhaps than any other horse and as a rule has always been inside the money. The scrubby looking gelding has changed hands numerous times, but this seemed to make no difference to him and he has continued to plod along and always did the best he could.

Tappan's win was sensational in more than one way. Besides standing a drive for three-eighths of a mile and winning the applause of those that like to see races for the sport there is in it he also carried the bunch of regulars over the bridge who bet on him to secure their getaway money. Conley was up on the gelding and rode a good race. Old David got a flying start and cut out the running with Tappan laying in a good position all the way. Rounding into the stretch David had a commanding lead and seemed to be going well in hand. About the eighth post, however, he began to wobble, and slowly but surely Tappan began to overhaul him. At about the sixteenth post Rigby, on David, drew his whip and under it the old horse swerved. This gave Conley and Tappan encouragement, and the pair, doing their best, struggled along gamely together and in the last stride got to and passed David, winning by a narrow margin. Tappan was always about 3 to 1 and was heavily backed.

Senator O'Brien had a winning streak, and during the day took a fortune out of the ring. He backed the mounts of his jockey, Vititoe, and the boy won four consecutive races.

On Fred Foster's handsome filly, Peace, Vititoe landed his first race. Peace was always about 2 to 1, and Mr. O'Brien won a swell bet on her. Vititoe got away in front, and there was never a stage of the journey when she did not hold the favorite, Harry Thoburn, and all the others safe.

After Peace's easy win came the Great Bend race, and at 2 to 1 Mr. O'Brien bet $1,000, and he never had an uneasy moment during the race, as Vititoe took the "Bend boss" to the front early and made a runaway race of it, winning pulled up by a half dozen lengths.

After winning two bets the Senator felt confident and he went to George Lee, with Vititoe up, hook, line and sinker. The race was at a mile and a quarter and George Lee was at the juicy price of 4 to 1. George Lee is a slow beginner but he is a strong finisher and after laying back in the rack for about three-quarters of a mile he began to work his way to the front and when headed for home he was in the lead and stayed there to the end, winning with great ease.

It was on Pay the Fiddler in the fifth event that Vititoe and O'Brien quit for the day. This gelding was backed from 3 to 1 down to 2 to 1, and after a fierce drive through the stretch beat Isabay.

Volandies, long overdue and at the liberal price of 5 to 1, made a show of his field in the first race. He got off in front and the further he went the greater he made his lead.

Monday the racing scene shifts to Lakeside where everything is in first-class condition for the final fifteen days of racing around Chicago. Every stall at the track is filled and all available stables on the outside have been engaged. The purses offered at Lakeside are $400 and better, and should there be a spell of good weather the racing at the Indiana track will be of the same high class that prevailed at Harlem and Hawthorne.

CALIFORNIA'S FUTURITY.

The California Jockey Club has decided to make a new departure in the line of establishing a fixed event of great value for two-year-olds. Concerning this new stake the San Francisco Chronicle says:

"The Futurity to be given by the California Jockey Club promises to be one of the sensational events of the American turf every year. The added money is to be $8,750, which is the amount added by the Coney Island Jockey Club. The first California Futurity will be run in 1901, and the conditions are very similar to the classic races decided in New York every year, except that cash payments will be exacted, so that forfeits will be entirely dispensed with. The breeders and owners throughout America will doubtless second the enterprise of the California Jockey Club by making such a big entry list that the first California Futurity will be worth $30,000 in gold coin. The distance is to be six and a half furlongs, and will be run every year in December.

"The institution of this stake will be hailed with interest by all turfmen in the country, and will be accepted as a valuable evidence of the permanence and stability of racing at San Francisco. It should, and no doubt will, receive flattering entries from all sections, and will have a tendency to increase the number of turfmen from the east who are to annually take part in the winter campaign at the big coast city. This enterprising venture should be supplemented by a big stake for three-year-olds. With such a stake in addition to the proposed Futurity and the already established $10,000 Burns Handicap as attractions, President Williams would, in the not far distant future, have as guest turfmen who up to this time have hardly even thought of racing their horses at San Francisco."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Charles F. Dwyer writes that the game is good on the other side of the water. The yearlings which he had purchased in Kentucky before leaving for England arrived there safely and he expects to carry off some of the honors with them in the two-year-old events next season. A colt by Lamplighter and an Albert colt weathered the voyage well, and these two especially are expected to make a fine showing. He says Riley Grannon has lost heavily, and will be a long time recovering himself, as he is only betting a hundred to a race where he formerly wagered thousands.—Morning Telegraph.

A number of bookmakers and their clerks leave Sunday for Cincinnati to attend the Newport meeting. Among them are Pesch, McCall, Johnson, Slocum, Hughes, Laudeman, Zimmer, May and Austin.

On pleas of guilty to the charge of conducting poolrooms, eighteen Philadelphia bookmakers were sentenced last Monday to pay a fine of $100 each and serve three months in prison.

Bert Knapp has this early been engaged to ride Paddy Tomlinson's crack colt, The Conqueror, in the Creecant City Derby next March.

Post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving. Satsuma ran his usual dead game race and showed a flash of his old-time form. Rosormonde beat the gate and ran a good race, but had up too much weight. She is in fine form. Hohenzollern got much the worst of the start and ran a fine race. Marplot is very unreliable.

Winner—B. c. by Volante—Mamie Fonso. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. Volandies revealed in the sloppy going and ran away from his field. He was the best horse by far as the race was run. Pat Garrett ran honestly. He could never get to Volandies, but always held the others safe. Rosavannah lost considerable ground by making a wide stretch turn. This cut no figure with the result, however, as Pat Garrett had her beaten at the time. Hub Prather had bad luck and this considered he did well. Holdup did not show his usual flash of speed. The field was badly strung out at the finish.

Scratched—15330 Bert Davis, 94; 15197 F. ensic, 90; 15349 Owyhee, 90; 15330 Uhler, 99; 15349 Miss Dooley, 93; 15349 Miss Edwards, 87; 15330 Nailor, 90; 15352 Lost Time, 96; 15349 Princess Murphy, 87.

Winner—Ch. f. by Midlothian—Turmoil. Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily up; second the same; third and fourth were driving to the limit. Peace got a flying start and had speed to spare. She is a fast little filly and has a great fondness for the mud. From a time standpoint her performance was a phenomenal one. Harry Thoburn went to the post a trifle lame. He has a quarter crack in front. Had he been at his best, however, he could not have beaten Peace. Sam Lazarus Esq. got away poorly, made up a lot of ground and ran a good race. The Chemist and Little Reggie were both roughly treated on the far turn. Uncas got into a jam and had to pull up at the start.

Overweights—Little Jack Horner, 3 pounds; Loyal Prince, 2; Sam Lazarus Esq., 34; Peace, 2. Peace, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Harry Thoburn, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Little Jack Horner, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. Blaise—Sasquehanna. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily up; second and third were driving. Great Bend won an easy race. He likes the mud and is in fine form. The horse fairly ran away with Vititoe and had all the others beaten before going a half mile. King's Highway ran one of his best races. He liked the going and finished gamely under punishment. Moroni quit badly in the stretch. He has probably had too much of it late. Banish had it that Banish was lame. Judging from the bad race he ran he must have been. Ennomia was outclassed and always outrun.

Great Bend, place, 7 to 10; show, out. King's Highway, place, 9 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Moroni, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Banish, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Ennomia, place, 9 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. g. by St. George—Levee. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second hand ridden; third and fourth were driving to the limit. George Lee was the best in the going and at the distance and was also best ridden. He went to the front at his leisure and won in hollow style. Plantain showed more speed than he has in any of his races of late and also hung on gamely through the stretch. Rollins was badly interfered with on the far turn. His race was a good one. Pinar del Rio, slow to begin, finished with a rush. Chancery retired early. Joe Shelby was never within gunshot of the leaders.

Scratched—15328 Double Dummy, 105. Overweights—Hosi, 3 pounds; Joe Shelby, 3. George Lee, place, 9 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Plantain, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Rollins, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Br. g. by Major Domo—Arilla. Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second and third were driving also. Pay the Fidler got into a bad mix-up on the first turn but Vititoe bumped his way through and down the backstretch got to the front as soon as possible. The gelding wanted to stop in the stretch but Vititoe kept hard at him and made him stick it out to the end. Isabay liked the going and ran a good race. He has very bad legs. Elidad got knocked out of it early and then had a lot of ground to make up, which he did gamely. Inuendo never could get to the front and after doing his best for a half mile quit badly. The Plutoct ran a fair race.

Scratched—15352 Ileen, 99; 15328 Warren Point, 99. Overweights—Depending, 5 pounds; Pay the Fidler, 4; Refugee, 5. Pay the Fidler, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Isabay, place, 5 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Elidad, show, evens. Inuendo, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Powhattan—Finical. Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth driving as hard. Tappan won through sheer gameness. He was strongly ridden at the finish. Conley fairly lifted the gelding home. David got a flying start, showed all his old-time speed, but tired badly under pressure. Rigby would perhaps have done better had he not gone to the whip. When he applied it to David the old horse swerved badly. The boy may have been weak, too, from reducing. As the race was run Monongah was the best. Patterson went to sleep on him at the post, and in the first eighth of a mile dropped far out of it. Through the stretch Monongah made up much ground, and at the end was fast catching the tired pair in front. Prestar could not handle the weight. Jackanapes does better on a fast track. Brulare ran a bad race.

Scratched—(14903) King Bermuda, 107; 15240 Catastrophe, 109; 15240 Tillie W., 103; 15260 Tom Kingsley, 99; (15327) Harry Duke, 105.

Post 10 minutes. Start poor. It was a hard drive through the last furlong. Shoreham and Erwin showed extreme gameness. Jucoma suffered from interference and showed great improvement. Watch him on a heavy track. Magic Light was a wild horse today. He ran away twice a quarter in breakaways and was much used at the post. Golden Rattle can win with good handling in ordinary company. The crowding on the far turn caused Macon, Sir Guy and Manitoba to fall. Macon was killed. Frando showed speed in the breakaways.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving. Wait Not is constantly improving. He was perfectly handled and ran to his best form. Warrenton sulked and served as usual in the stretch.
